

PENIS ENVY: DOES SIZE REALLY MATTER?

INTERVIEW WITH PETER ANDREW SACCO

The following is a brief excerpt I did with a Canadian radio show...

WHAT IS PENIS ENVY?

Good question! Penis Envy is inspired from the work of Sigmund Freud and his take on penis envy--why women are envious of men. In this book, we flipped it around and showed today's reality of how it applies more to the envy many men have toward one another.

You see Freud got a lot of criticism for his take on penis envy, how women wanted to be more like men. You have to take the context, his true intentions/metaphors and timing of it (1800's). Back in that day, women were not treated equally as men were and many were given lower paying jobs, less preferential treatment and treated as second class citizens. Is it any wonder why they developed this envy toward wanting to be a man and be treated equally? And the same exists in many different parts of the world today where women are treated as less than men. This is totally wrong! And guess what, Freud was more right than ever!

WHAT IS YOUR TAKE ON PENIS ENVY IN YOUR BOOK?

We flipped it up to show that as affirmative action and women's liberation kicked in over the years, in the western world women are less envious of men and in fact, men are more envious of men! More men than women possess this "penis envy"!

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN A MAN DEVELOPS PENIS ENVY?

Well, it's all about competition! This book explains many of the quirks, idiosyncrasies, bizarre and ridiculous lifestyles many adult men lead today. We uncover some of the funny things some men do today because they have penis envy or aspects of it.

WHAT ARE SOME OF THESE RIDICULOUS THINGS THAT MEN DO THAT YOU COVER?

We cite and discuss certain types of theories as well as, as one book reviewer put it...the dumbass things some men do. We examined reasons and stories as to; Why do so many adult men still live at home with their parents? Why are some adult men attached to mom at the hip, never able to let go? It's like they were never able to leave the nest! Why do some men feel the need to "stuff" themselves? Some men literally pad themselves to make themselves appear more manly..really, we had men share this with us! Why do some men wear clothes and bathing suits that are way too tight? Ever seen the banana hammocks some men wear to the beach? Why do some men dress like women--meterosexuals? What is it with men trying to appear more feminine? Why are some men so proud of their large bellies and breasts? Some men actually advertise their beer guts and man-boobies like trophies they earned from pounding back a few keggers! Why are guy friends cling-ons? Some men spend more time with their best friend than they do with their own wives and kids. And furthermore, when you ask most married man who his best friend is, he picks his guy best friend and not his wife! Can a guy be more "in love" with his truck or favorite team than his wife? You can only imagine the answers we got to this one!

WHAT DID YOU HOPE TO ACHIEVE IN WRITING PENIS ENVY?

Well, we tried to answer these questions and more. We wanted to answer, "Does size really matter?" Not surprisingly, yes it does, at least in terms of what men think!

WHAT ARE THEY SAYING ABOUT PENIS ENVY SO FAR?

"Valuable information about what many of us have been questioning for years... Politically correct has no place in Penis Envy but rather raw principles to age old concerns about behavior."

Dr. Debra Laino, Sex Therapist/radio show host

"Holy cow! This book is hilarious and so real! My husband has Penis Envy for sure after reading this book!"

Cheryl T. (C.A.)

"Wow! Something very different, fun and interesting!"

Iron Mike Benson, 97.7 Htz FM Radio Host

"I couldn't put this book down..only when I wiped the tears from my eyes because I laughed so hard!"
